

PEROVSKIA (RUSSIAN SAGE)

Location: Zone 4, sun, well-drained soil

Shape: Upright, clumping

Foliage: Gray-green, toothed

Flowers: Late summer to fall

Notes: Perovskia is a woody sub-shrub with long panicles of lavender-blue flowers that become increasingly brilliant as they open. The foliage is finely cut gray-green leaves that are slightly scented.

Peek-A-Blue®

H: 24" W: 24"

Russian Sage

H: 36-48" W: 28-36"

